OFFICIAL NOTICE OF BUSINESS INTEGRATION

To: All Clients, Employees, Suppliers and Business Partners

Subject: Integration of K2 Expeditions & Trekking with Namla Expeditions

Namla Expeditions (SMC-Private) Limited hereby announces that the formal process of integrating the business activities of K2 Expeditions & Trekking into the Namla Expeditions structure has commenced.

The integration is intended to bring office administration, expedition planning and field operations under a coordinated management structure while preserving the local expertise, established relationships and service continuity associated with K2 Expeditions & Trekking.

Upon completion of the applicable requirements, Namla Expeditions will become the principal entity for new contracts, bookings, permits, invoicing, payments, supplier arrangements and staffing. The effective date and scope of these changes will be communicated separately in writing.

Existing Commitments

Existing bookings, agreements and obligations remain governed by their current terms unless formally updated. This notice does not itself transfer contracts or liabilities. Until a specific transfer is confirmed, each company remains responsible for its respective obligations.

Branding and Official Communication

The K2 Expeditions & Trekking name may continue to appear on websites, promotional materials and correspondence during the transition. Any changes to contracting parties, payment details or official records will be issued through verified company channels with appropriate supporting documentation.

All concerned parties are requested to coordinate with management regarding transition-related matters and verify revised payment instructions before acting upon them.

For clarification, please use the official contact details printed on this letterhead.
